

7521767280.txt

Stop the merger--creating monopolies/oligopolies only destroys competition, allowing for increased prices and reduced services to consumers. Middle class consumers already have to pay too much for cable and internet access--the merger will only make price increases more likely, along with other onerous policy changes that will squeeze consumers in order to increase profits. When a single large entity controls the market for many thousands of consumers, the consumers lose.