

7521768220.txt

Preserve internet neutrality and preserve the only democracy that remains us. Any other measure would open the door to corporate thugs! Cable and telecommunications companies are not capable or deserving of power over the last democratic space.