Asit Pai, Commissioner
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th St. SW
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Commissioner Pai:

I am writing in defense of net neutrality, which is under threat by the paid prioritization plan. If adopted, it will mean the end of free speech online.

Reclassifying broadband providers as common carriers will prevent online discrimination as well as protecting consumers.

Safeguard the public interest by keeping the internet free.

Sincerely,

Hildegard Hannum
