

7521768620.txt

Comment

We have very few programs on tv for rural families. RFD has good family oriented shows with strong Christian values that we feel America was founded on. These are important programs to farmers and ranchers for market information and education on new trends in our industry. Please do not take this network away from the very people who feed this great nation.