

7521769160.txt

The RFD-TV network is an important part of our entertainment and recreation. Being farmers and ranchers we are able to access timely information and ideas. This information is not available on the main broadcasting networks. The majority of the programming on commercial TV networks does not provide the type of programs we enjoy, most of them are not family oriented or informational programming.

Thank you for your consideration.