It is requested that any actions taken regarding this proceeding PROTECT the broadcasting of RFDTV as I am a rural American and appreciate the coverage that they provide. There are still a large amount of rural Americans that need the information provided by this broadcasting for their way of life and making a living. Urban America still needs to receive the products that rural Americans provide. The educational information and agricultural business information attained through RFDTV broadcast are important for the support of rural American farm and ranching businesses and families.
