

7521770424.txt

We must preserve open internet and net neutrality. Raising the rates on certain sites or slowing down internet for profit is against everything this country stands for.