

7521770734.txt

Taking off shows with wholesome content is just simply the real problem of our country now. There is nothing with morals or true values that is safe anymore on television. I am paying to watch TV and I want to continue to watch good shows such as those showed on the RFD station. I understand there is a chance you might take this station off and put something that I do not believe in on instead.