

Comcast claims it needs this merger with Time Warner Cable to improve customer service; yet it has made such empty promises in the past. What about the merger concessions they made to acquire NBC Universal that they have not lived up to yet? I urge the FCC to enforce those conditions and force Comcast to comply with its NBCU merger conditions before approving anymore mergers pertaining to Comcast. Comcast and TWC are the two most hated cable companies in America according to Consumer Reports.