

7521772142.txt

Does everyone believe that the only people watching these merging networks live in urban areas? What about those of us who reside in RURAL AMERICA? Channels like RFDTV are important to us for news, farm/equipment/weather/crop information. And the entertainment is far more wholesome than you find on the other cable channels.

Please do not allow the "new" company to remove RFDTV from their offerings.

/thank you