

7521772919.txt

I am concerned about the potential elimination of the RFD channel on Direct TV service. We live in a metro area but still find the programming interesting and of value to a wide range of viewers, including our 4-Hers, horse groups and retired citizens that enjoy the variety of music programming not generally available on other channels. Our Direct TV does have RFD but blatantly pushes multiple channels of XXX rated programming. How about a balance of healthy programming?

x