

7521774722.txt

. Both Time Warner and Comcast are already too big to offer any kind of fair and reasonable service. Example: Time Warner, which I have, is supporting Fox News which I object to. I pay about 57 cents/month to support that which I don't agree, and wouldn't support were I able to not support it. Time Warner and Comcast should both be broken up into smaller entities, not combined!