

7521775860.txt

.Comcast is the only service available to me, therefore I have no choice and am stuck with them. I had \"extended basic\" service but had to downgrade to \"basic\" because the cost was always going up while service was being reduced. Even at this reduced rate, the cost has increased. What is needed is to have other services so there is competition for the public to have choices. I\"m definitely opposed to this merger.