

7521779701.txt

. I have been a longtime Comcast (television & internet) Cable customer. I have had to threaten Comcast that I would cancel my service with them several times during the past several years due to Comcast trying to raise the cost of their services. I strongly believe that our Country is now in dire straits due mostly to \"American Greed\". There is a need to keep competition between companies to keep them honest and give their customers good service at reasonable prices.