

7521781967.txt

It sickens me to see my local satellite TV service with Al Jazeera TV and Free Speech TV and yet they are questioning keeping something as wholesome and useful as RFD TV? What's wrong with this country?

I believe individuals should be allowed to select which channels they want and then only pay for those. I would drop several, including MSNBC and only pay for the ones I actually watch. What's wrong with that that?