

7521786289.txt

.The prospect of a single company--Comcast--controlling such a large proportion of the internet and cable media should be frightening to all consumers and citizens. Not only would it adversely affect the prices consumers pay, but it threatens to restrict the already constricted range of opinions aired through these media. Please do not approve this merger.