

7521787944.txt

We do not want to lose the RFD-TV programming. It has wholesome shows that are just a joy to watch. The programming is what we, in the heartland, live and breathe every day. We need to keep this rural channel alive.