

7521790201.txt

. We need to learn from our past, and understand the roll of competition in fair and honest business practices. Large monopolies have hurt the country. Greed and avarice should not be the only drivers of the marketplace