

7521791649.txt

As it is, consumers in most places have only one option for cable access. More competition across the board will keep prices down and force providers to offer better service. Vote no on the Comcast take over of Time-Warner.