

7521796453.txt

I have written to you before about this issue. I continue to believe that this merger will cripple the Internet as we know it, creating a two- or three-tiered system that is inherently undemocratic. Equal and unbiased access to the Internet for all is still the best policy. America will remain strong, flexible and creative when all its citizens have equal access to information. Thank you for listening.
Sincerely, Jan Pappas 98-1287 Akaaka St Aiea, Hawaii 96701