I don't have a problem with the owners of networks that want to upgrade or add to their programming. I do have a problem with them when they are replacing wholesome TV programs with what sounds like propaganda from a foreign country. As far as I know, Aljazeera is a "not so nice group of people" in the Middle East. We, and other countries are doing everything in our power to keep their philosophies from being introduced to us and our children. I pray that this change of programming never gets passed. We are Americans. Lets keep it that way.
