

7521798534.txt

The FCC should reclassify broadband Internet as a public telecommunications service.
We need you to protect net neutrality.

Also, big media conglomerates should not be allowed to take over local television stations and newspapers. We need several different points of view.