

7521798543.txt

Let's avoid the creation of another monopoly telecoms company. We broke up AT&T to promote innovation and growth. That strategy has been highly successful! This proposed merger, feels like a step in the wrong direction. Let Comcast and Time Warner compete in the marketplace and earn their market share through competition, not monopoly power.