

7521799646.txt

Our leaders seem always to be extolling the benefits of competition to other countries, and there is no question, competition beats every alternative. Therefore I plead with you to protect me as a citizen from the abuses that oligopoly already brings to the communications industry. Please do not allow further mergers in this critical area to lead us closer to absolute monopoly.