

7521801750.txt

The proposed merger of Comcast and Time Warner is not in the best interests of American citizens. The telecommunications industry is doing an extremely poor job of serving their customers here, especially when compared to other countries. I urge you to focus on the best interests of the American people and deny this merger.