

7521805214.txt

Agriculture is the most important industry of the United States. It's important that the urban population knows where their food comes from and how it is produced.

Keep Rural TV and RFD TV in your lineup. It is good wholesome programming that families can watch without worrying about the content.

The rural lifestyle is the mainstay of our country. Keep the programming.