

7521806427.txt

I am writing to support the broadcasting provided by RFDTV, and to request that their programming be continued as a service to those that are located in rural areas with news and entertainment needs that differ greatly from those living in an urban environment.

These needs include grain and cattle reports, sports such as horseback riding, and special interest programming such as country music, trains, and classic family entertainment.