

7521806467.txt

I've recently learned of the upcoming merger and how this will affect my local programming. there is so little programming that these companies provide that I do watch. I do not desire another reality tv, shopping, or Hispanic channel. please protect the shows that I do watch by fostering programming diversity, especially that which promotes our rural heritage and offers educational programming such as rfd-tv does.