

7521806487.txt

Please do not rule against RFDTV. I know that AT&T has already said they want to take care of urban population. The rural population is important as well. I think urban population would also find many shows on RFDTV that they be interested in watching. We rely on RFDTV for info for our farming and ranching operation. It is important to us.