

7521806615.txt

I live in a suburban area. I work in heavy industry. I have had very little exposure to the agricultural business. RFD TV gives me the opportunity to learn about the agricultural business and its history. They also provide a varied schedule of good general entertainment. I strongly urge you to allow RFD to continue to be on cable networks. I think there is a great benefit. Understanding what agriculture does for our economy is important.