

7521807635.txt

I feel that this merger will limit our choices on available channels on satellite TV. We live in an area with no cable options so our only TV channels are from satellites. We have been a subscriber of DirectTV since 1997. There are some channels that DirectTV does not offer now that we would like, and I do not think that will improve with this merger.