

7521808687.txt

We are fans of RFD-TV. When visiting in some areas of the country, it has not be available. This is especially upsetting if it is a farm area of the country and the cable is from a nearby city. It should be included so that urban customers can see and appreciate what country life is all about.