

7521809891.txt

With the mergers that are in the process it seems that RFDTV and other rural programming is in danger of being dropped. We live in a suburb of Atlanta and enjoy this network. There is very little worth watching that is not offensive or off-color. Please protect this network.