

7521810443.txt

RFD and Rural TV are more than tv networks; they represent those of us who cherish the rural/farm/ranching way of life. A way of life this country was founded on and continues to keep us and much of the world fed and clothed.

While we are now a minority of the population we pay taxes and we VOTE. Keep paths for the programming these networks offer available.