

7521810912.txt

I am saddened to think that some big shot "white collars" do not think the RFD station is important to us rural people, the ones who feed you and clothe you. We enjoy a few minutes to watch a farm program, auction, country music, and rural news. Without access to the RFD station I have NO use for satellite or cable TV.