

7521811192.txt

We need the rural towers so when the satellite's or cable don't work the towers can still send information about storms and other emergency situations.

RFD TV is good for the agricultural communities it informs ranchers and farmers of much needed information.