

7521812009.txt

I receive information and shows that I am willing to pay more for or I would be using cox or ATT instead of the Directv option I live in town but have livestock and can't find the quality programming that I prefer my family view with other services.