

7521812218.txt

I believe that rfdtv is a valuable asset to viewers. It is historical, educational, and entertaining. It connects our past and present and shows us how we are all connected with farming and animals for our survival. It develops and promotes pride in those who provide for this nation. I look forward to many of the programs on a regular basis. I would feel lost without rfdtv. Please keep this channel and the vital programming it provides on the air!