

7521813658.txt

My husband and I believe it is very important to keep tv channels such as RFD-TV on cable and satellite. This channel has many good programs that are informative to us about rural issues, interests, and other concerns farmers may have. In today's world farmers need up-to-date information. RFD-TV is very important to us. Please give this your attention when considering any mergers of satellite or cable tv companies.