

7521815460.txt

I watch RFD TV regularly and want it to remain. Good TV is hard to come by and this is one station that remains decent with values while being informative to those of us who plant/produce products in the rural setting. These big mergers support the rich only and those of us who work for a living go without.