I can't believe you want to take this off. We watch RFD most of the day. This is an educational and wholesome station. we are tired of seeing some of these reality shows with people fighting. No wonder our young people act the way they do. give them something to learn by. Where food comes from. Let them see what country life is about. Your making a big mistake. I for one will not be watching much TV or even have Direct TV. Keep it going. The Staskiviges.
