

7521815903.txt

I am already being ripped off by Comcast, which has a cable monopoly in my area with no effective alternative. Reliable high speed internet access is now essential and the concentration of power into a growing monopoly must be effectively controlled and regulated in the interests of consumers, business and, not to over-dramatise, our already struggling democracy itself! Tim Blofeld 115 Emerson Ave Novato, CA 94949