

7521815920.txt

rural America may be a numerical minority, but has same rights as all others. races would never be excluded from the services of public companies, so why allow gerrymandering coverage of a public service even if a for-profit utility.