

7521820109.txt

I am against the merger - losing the RFD channel would be a great loss especially in the farmlands of this country, This channel provides a lot of information for farmers and others associated with country living. They provide good clean family entertainment and other services . I strongly urge you to stop this merger of big business taking over.