

7521820415.txt

I am a new subscriber to DirectTV after having only antenna TV reception for several years. I have found some channels that I and my family enjoy without worrying about inappropriate content. We fear losing that freedom to enjoy certain channels that contribute to family bonding, including rural programming.

Please block any attempt of merger that may remove the freedom of choice that we now enjoy.

Sincerely,
Gregg Jones Family