

7521821363.txt

My husband and I have been in the horse industry, as our parents before us. We dropped our previous satellite provider to sign up with AT&T. With the assurance AT&T would be broadcasting RFDTV. After waiting for a couple of years with no results, we dropped AT&T and went with Direct TV.

RFTV offers programming that cannot be found elsewhere. It is the one and most important program in our choice of service providers.