

7521824136.txt

Common sense tells us a merger of these two large companies to create a mammoth cable company that would have too much influence over issues concerning consumer access is detrimental to the public. We cannot let this happen.