

7521824260.txt

We watch RFD at some point of the day everyday. The have wonderful information for rural people and the wholesome television on today. It would be a crime to remove it today to be replaced by some of the hideous programs and stations that are on today's television. Stations like RFD are most important to a lot of us today.