

7521824899.txt

I think it is deeply important to maintain net neutrality, so that the American citizen, and industry can have equal, fair and no monopolized access to the internet.

I live in New York, and I already find it incredibly frustrating that I am limited to a singular internet provider, making me therefore fully controlled by one entity to my access to the information of the world wide web. I hope you can understand that this is not how a country born of independence, and choice should work.