

7521824967.txt

information is not and should not be a commodity! Fast lanes create slow lanes which upset the balance of the receipt of information. This will create a greater divide within our society.

The access to that information must remain equally available to all.
It is time to reclassify/redefine ISPs using as common carriers using Title II.